Report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme on its twenty-fourth session

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 2997 (XXVII) of 15 December 1972, 53/242 of 28 July 1999, 56/193 of 21 December 2001, 57/251 of 20 December 2002, 58/209 of 23 December 2003, 59/226 of 22 December 2004, 60/189 of 22 December 2005 and 61/205 of 20 December 2006,

Recalling also the 2005 World Summit Outcome,[1]

Recognizing the need for more efficient environmental activities in the United Nations system, and noting the need to consider possible options to address this need,

Taking into account Agenda 21[2] and the Plan of Implementation of the World Summit on Sustainable Development ("Johannesburg Plan of Implementation"),[3]

Reaffirming the role of the United Nations Environment Programme as the principal body within the United Nations system in the field of environment, which should take into account, within its mandate, the sustainable development needs of developing countries, as well as countries with economies in transition,

* On behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77 and China.

Emphasizing that capacity-building and technology support for developing countries in environment-related fields are important components of the work of the United Nations Environment Programme,

Recognizing the need for the full implementation of the Bali Strategic Plan for Technology Support and Capacity-building of the United Nations Environment Programme[4] by providing the requisite financial, technical and other resources,

Welcoming the proposal made by the Government of Egypt to establish an international centre for judicial capacity-building in environmental law in Cairo,

1. Takes note of the report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme at its twenty-fourth session[5] and the decisions contained therein;[6]

2. Declares the decade 2010-2020 as the United Nations Decade for Deserts and the Fight against Desertification, based on the recommendation of the Governing Council/Global Ministerial Environment Forum of the United Nations Environment Programme during its twenty-fourth session;[7]

3. Expresses concern over the lack of progress in the implementation of the Bali Strategic Plan for Technology Support and Capacity-building of the United Nations Environment Programme,[4] and, in this regard, calls upon Governments and other stakeholders in a position to do so to provide the necessary funding and technical assistance and also calls upon the United Nations Environment Programme to continue its efforts to fully implement the Bali Strategic Plan through strengthened cooperation with other stakeholders, based on their comparative advantages;

4. Recognizes the progress made so far on the implementation of the Strategic Approach to International Chemicals Management,[8] particularly through its Quick Start Programme, and welcomes in this regard the decision taken by the Governing Council/Global Ministerial Environment Forum of the United Nations Environment Programme to establish an ad hoc open-ended working group of Governments, regional economic integration organizations and stakeholder representatives to review options for enhanced voluntary measures;[9]

5. Emphasizes the need to further enhance coordination and cooperation among the relevant United Nations organizations in the promotion of the environmental dimension of sustainable development, and welcomes the continued active participation of the United Nations Environment Programme in the United Nations Development Group and the Environment Management Group;

6. Also emphasizes the need for the United Nations Environment Programme, within its mandate, to further contribute to sustainable development programmes, the implementation of Agenda 21[2] and the Johannesburg Plan of

Implementation[3] at all levels and to the work of the Commission on Sustainable Development, bearing in mind the mandate of the Commission;

7. Welcomes the continued efforts of the United Nations Environment Programme in shifting emphasis from delivery of outputs to achievement of results within its budget and programme of work and also welcomes in this regard decision 24/9 of the Governing Council/Global Ministerial Environment Forum on the budget and programme of work of the United Nations Environment Programme for the biennium 2008-2009;

8. Recognizes the need to strengthen the scientific base of the United Nations Environment Programme, as recommended by the intergovernmental consultation on strengthening the scientific base of the Programme, including through the provision of adequate financial resources;

9. Reiterates the need for stable, adequate and predictable financial resources for the United Nations Environment Programme, and, in accordance with resolution 2997 (XXVII), underlines the need to consider the adequate reflection of all administrative and management costs of the Programme in the context of the United Nations regular budget;

10. Invites Governments that are in a position to do so to increase their contributions to the Environment Fund;

11. Emphasizes the importance of the Nairobi headquarters location of the United Nations Environment Programme, and requests the Secretary-General to keep the resource needs of the Programme and the United Nations Office at Nairobi under review so as to permit the delivery, in an effective manner, of necessary services to the Programme and to the other United Nations organs and organizations in Nairobi;

12. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its sixty-third session, under the item entitled "Sustainable development", a sub-item entitled "Report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme on its tenth special session".
